

Emeritus/Emerita College Recognitions and Privileges

Last updated: 4/11/2023

Summary

The following list of recognitions and privileges offered to members of the Emeritus/Emerita College is maintained by Chief of Staff in collaboration with the Provost, reviewed annually, and can be modified at any time.

This document is referenced and linked from the following four emeritus/emmerita policies, Section 4, published on Lander University's policies page¹:

- LP 1.1 - Trustee Emeritus/Emerita Status
- LP 1.2 - President Emeritus/Emerita Status
- LP 1.3 - Faculty Emeritus/Emerita Status
- LP 1.4 - Staff Emeritus/Emerita Status

Recognitions and Privileges

Trustees, presidents, faculty, or staff who are granted Emeritus/Emerita Status have campus privileges that include:

- Membership in the Emeritus/Emerita College group
- Access to Emeritus/Emerita-only activities
- Public recognition
- Receipt of an award letter
- Listing as "Emeritus/Emerita" in all appropriate university publications
- Inclusion in university mailing list for announcements, event invitations, and campus news
- Eligibility for appointment to university advisory committees
- Library privileges
- Special ID card
- Access to computer labs²
- Ability to audit courses without cost³

¹ Lander University Policies web page: <https://www.lander.edu/about/university-policies>

² As long as it does not conflict with student or other faculty and staff activities.

³ Subject to availability of space, the consent of the instructor, and college policy. Individual course fees are not waived.