

LANDER UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF NURSING
ADJUNCT CLINICAL/LABORATORY INSTRUCTOR APPLICATION

The William Preston Turner School of Nursing invites applications for adjunct (part-time) laboratory/clinical instructor positions for various clinical specialties. Our clinical days are Tuesdays and Thursdays throughout the academic year (August-April).

RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Assumes campus/clinical laboratory supervision role
- Assists in teaching activities within designated courses under the leadership of the course coordinator
- Maintains currency of nursing knowledge and skills in area of preparation
- Carries out instructional designs developed by course coordinator
- Enhances clinical knowledge and skills in area of teaching focus
- Expands nursing knowledge and skills in area of preparation
- Functions under the supervision of a course coordinator who maintains overall course responsibility

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Master's degree in nursing preferred; Bachelor's degree in nursing required
- Unencumbered RN licensure in South Carolina
- BLS certification
- A minimum of two years clinical practice as a professional registered nurse
- Evidence of effective clinical practice that includes experience with formal and informal teaching of patient groups or student groups, and/or of licensed nurses' groups
- Must have a satisfactory drug screen and background check
- Must meet immunization and health screening requirements
- Must maintain Professional Liability insurance
- Must have a driver's license

HOW TO APPLY:

Interested individuals may apply by completing the Laboratory/Clinical Instructor Application and submitting the application with a resume and the names/phone numbers of three references to:

Ginny Leopard
Administrative Assistant
Lander University
William Preston Turner School of Nursing
320 Stanley Avenue
Greenwood, SC 29649
Phone: 864-388-8396
Fax: 864-388-8122
gleopard@lander.edu

Applicants for employment are required to undergo a background investigation in our selection and hiring process to help determine the applicant's/employee's overall employability. The final candidate(s) must successfully satisfy the employment background, drug and health screen requirements prior to entering the workforce. A Summary of Your Rights Under the Fair Credit Reporting Act is available for your review on the Lander University Human Resources web site,* <http://www.lander.edu/Business-Administration/Human-Resources/employment/Employment-Opportunities.aspx>.

