

Adjunct Instructor - Therapeutic Riding Instructor

The College of Education invites applications for an adjunct instructor position focused on therapeutic riding in our Therapeutic Horsemanship minor.

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Professional Association of Therapeutic Horsemanship International (PATH Intl.)* certification required
- Master's degree is preferred; Bachelor's degree required
- Evidence of effective experience with therapeutic equine care and management, including experience in the administration of a therapeutic horsemanship program.
- Must have a satisfactory background check

HOW TO APPLY:

Interested individuals may apply by submitting a letter of interest and resume, including the names/phone numbers of three references to:

Katie Whatley
Administrative Assistant
Lander University
College of Education
CPO Box 6011, 320 Stanley Avenue
Greenwood, SC 29649
Phone: 864-388-8006
cwhatley@lander.edu